50X1

50X1

DUNTRY Czechoslovakia DATE DISTR. Jan, 21, 1955			E0V4	CONFI	DENTIAL	REPORT NO.	50X1
Every two weeks  ACE ACQUIRED  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  THE Dassed an installation was located in the Subasses of the Opinion was located when the saw young SLB personnel wearing plain, dark red shoulderboards entering and leaving. He believed that StB personnel undergoing recruit training were quartered there. In other known or suspected StB barracks. He was of the opinion that, generally, StB members alved in private quarters.  The only place where personnel, wear in the vicinity or the Frague-Smichov railroad station (see page 3), which he passed about once every two weeks. In a building across from this station there was located what was a FS school. There was no sign to indicate this fact except that FS members entering and leaving this building were carrying briefcases. The open type. Among the books and were attending a PS oourse of some type. Among the books and were attending a PS oourse of some type. Among the books and were attending a PS oourse of some type. Among the books and were attending a PS oourse of some type. Among the books and were attending a PS oourse of some type. Among the books and were attending a PS oourse of some type. Among the books and the passed and the passed and the passed and the passed an		•	50X1			A.	33/(1
Every two weeks  ACE ACQUIRED  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  THE Dassed an installation was located in the Subasses of the Opinion was located when the saw young SLB personnel wearing plain, dark red shoulderboards entering and leaving. He believed that StB personnel undergoing recruit training were quartered there. In other known or suspected StB barracks. He was of the opinion that, generally, StB members alved in private quarters.  The only place where personnel, wear in the vicinity or the Frague-Smichov railroad station (see page 3), which he passed about once every two weeks. In a building across from this station there was located what was a FS school. There was no sign to indicate this fact except that FS members entering and leaving this building were carrying briefcases. The open type. Among the books and were attending a PS oourse of some type. Among the books and were attending a PS oourse of some type. Among the books and were attending a PS oourse of some type. Among the books and were attending a PS oourse of some type. Among the books and were attending a PS oourse of some type. Among the books and were attending a PS oourse of some type. Among the books and the passed and the passed and the passed and the passed an	DUNTRY C	zechos:	Lovakia			DATE DISTR. Ja	n,21,1955
THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  Every two weeks					in Prague	NO. OF PAGES	4
Every two weeks which he believed to be an StB school. This installation was located in the Dejvice section of Prague, near the US Embassy (see page 4). He had seen a large number of male and female enlisted personnel there. quite frequently passed the former Chamber of Commerce building located in the Stare Mesto ares of Prague. Although there was nothing to indicate what was housed in the building, there was an StB guard at the entrance and he saw young StB personnel wearing plain, dark red shoulderboards entering and leaving. He believed that StB personnel undergoing recruit training were quartered there. In oother known or suspected StB barracks. He was of the opinion that, generally, StB members lived in private quarters.  The only place where personnel was in the vicinity of the Frague-Smiohov railroad station (see page 3), which he passed about once every two weeks. In a building ecross from this station there was located what this fact except that FS members entering and leaving this building were carrying briefcases. The content of the process of some type. Among the	ATE OF INFORM	MOITAN			50X1	REFERENCES:
Every two weeks passed an installation which he believed to be an StB school. This installation was located in the Dejvice section of Prague, near the US Embassy (see page 4). He had seen a large number of male and female enlisted personnel there. quite frequently passed the former Chamber of Commerce building located in the Stare Mesto area of Prague. Although there was nothing to indicate what was housed in the building, there was an StB guard at the entrance and he saw young StB personnel wearing plain, dark red shoulderboards entering and leaving. He believed that StB personnel undergoing recruit training were quartered there. no other known or suspected StB barracks. He was of the opinion that, generally, StB members lived in private quarters.  The only place where personnel was in the vicinity or the Prague-Smichov railroad station (see page 3), which he passed about once every two weeks. In a building across from this station there was no sign to indicate this fact except that PS members entering and leaving this building were carrying briefcases. they carried books and were attending a PS course of some type. Among the	ACE ACQUIRE	D
Every two weeks passed an installation which he believed to be an StB school. This installation was located in the Dejyice section of Prague, near the US Embassy (see page 4). He had seen a large number of male and female enlisted personnel there. quite frequently passed the former Chamber of Commerce building located in the Stare Mesto area of Prague. Although there was nothing to indicate what was housed in the building, there was an StB guard at the entrance and he saw young StB personnel wearing plain, dark red shoulderboards entering and leaving. He believed that StB personnel undergoing recruit training were quartered there. no other known or suspected StB barracks. He was of the opinion that, generally, StB members lived in private quarters.  The only place where personnel was in the vicinity or the Prague-Smichov railroad station (see page 3), which he passed about once every two weeks. In a building across from this station there was no sign to indicate this fact except that PS members entering and leaving this building were carrying briefcases. they carried books and were attending a PS course of some type. Among the
Every two weeks passed an installation which he believed to be an StB school. This installation was located in the Dejvice section of Prague, near the US Embassy (see page 4). He had seen a large number of male and female enlisted personnel there. quite frequently passed the former Chamber of Commerce building located in the Stare Mesto area of Prague. Although there was nothing to indicate what was housed in the building, there was an StB guard at the entrance and he saw young StB personnel wearing plain, dark red shoulderboards entering and leaving. He believed that StB personnel undergoing recruit training were quartered there. no other known or suspected StB barracks. He was of the opinion that, generally, StB members lived in private quarters.  The only place where personnel was in the vicinity or the Prague-Smichov railroad station (see page 3), which he passed about once every two weeks. In a building across from this station there was no sign to indicate this fact except that PS members entering and leaving this building were carrying briefcases. they carried books and were attending a PS course of some type. Among the
Every two weeks passed an installation which he believed to be an StB school. This installation was located in the Dejyice section of Prague, near the US Embassy (see page 4). He had seen a large number of male and female enlisted personnel there. quite frequently passed the former Chamber of Commerce building located in the Stare Mesto area of Prague. Although there was nothing to indicate what was housed in the building, there was an StB guard at the entrance and he saw young StB personnel wearing plain, dark red shoulderboards entering and leaving. He believed that StB personnel undergoing recruit training were quartered there. no other known or suspected StB barracks. He was of the opinion that, generally, StB members lived in private quarters.  The only place where personnel was in the vicinity or the Prague-Smichov railroad station (see page 3), which he passed about once every two weeks. In a building across from this station there was no sign to indicate this fact except that PS members entering and leaving this building were carrying briefcases. they carried books and were attending a PS course of some type. Among the				A 10 1 h 171 / A 1 1 1 A TPP	. IN IFORM 44 TION
passed an installation which he believed to be an StB school. This installation was located in the Dejvice section of Prague, near the US Embassy (see page 4). He had seen a large number of male and female enlisted personnel there.  quite frequently passed the former Chamber of Commerce building located in the Stare Mesto area of Prague. Although there was nothing to indicate what was housed in the building, there was an StB guard at the entrance and he saw young StB personnel wearing plain, dark red shoulderboards entering and leaving. He believed that StB personnel undergoing recruit training were quartered there.  known or suspected StB barracks. He was of the opinion that, generally, StB members lived in private quarters.  The only place where  personnel was in the vicinity or the Prague-Smichov railroad station (see page 3), which he passed about once every two weeks. In a building across from this station there was located what  was a PS school. There was no sign to indicate this fact except that PS members entering and leaving this building were carrying briefcases.  books and were attending a PS course of some type. Among the			ŲHI)	S IS UNEVALUATED	INFORMATION which he believed to be an StB school. This installation was located in the Dejvice section of Prague, near the US Embassy (see page 4). He had seen a large number of male and female enlisted personnel there.  quite frequently passed the former Chamber of Commerce building located in the Stare Mesto area of Prague. Although there was nothing to indicate what was housed in the building, there was an StB guard at the entrance and he saw young StB personnel wearing plain, dark red shoulderboards entering and leaving. He believed that StB personnel undergoing recruit training were quartered there.  known or suspected StB barracks. He was of the opinion that, generally, StB members lived in private quarters.  The only place where  personnel was in the vicinity or the Prague-Smichov railroad station (see page 3), which he passed about once every two weeks. In a building across from this station there was located what  was a PS school. There was no sign to indicate this fact except that PS members entering and leaving this building were carrying briefcases.  books and were attending a PS course of some type. Among the
which he believed to be an StB school. This installation was located in the Dejvice section of Prague, near the US Embassy (see page 4). He had seen a large number of male and female enlisted personnel there.  quite frequently passed the former Chamber of Commerce building located in the Stare Mesto area of Prague. Although there was nothing to indicate what was housed in the building, there was an StB guard at the entrance and he saw young StB personnel wearing plain, dark red shoulderboards entering and leaving. He believed that StB personnel undergoing recruit training were quartered there.  known or suspected StB barracks. He was of the opinion that, generally, StB members lived in private quarters.  The only place where  personnel was in the vicinity or the Prague-Smichov railroad station (see page 3), which he passed about once every two weeks. In a building across from this station there was located what  was a PS school. There was no sign to indicate this fact except that PS members entering and leaving this building were carrying briefcases.  books and were attending a PS course of some type. Among the
which he believed to be an StB school. This installation was located in the Dejvice section of Prague, near the US Embassy (see page 4). He had seen a large number of male and female enlisted personnel there.  quite frequently passed the former Chamber of Commerce building located in the Stare Mesto area of Prague. Although there was nothing to indicate what was housed in the building, there was an StB guard at the entrance and he saw young StB personnel wearing plain, dark red shoulderboards entering and leaving. He believed that StB personnel undergoing recruit training were quartered there.  known or suspected StB barracks. He was of the opinion that, generally, StB members lived in private quarters.  The only place where  personnel was in the vicinity or the Prague-Smichov railroad station (see page 3), which he passed about once every two weeks. In a building across from this station there was located what  was a PS school. There was no sign to indicate this fact except that PS members entering and leaving this building were carrying briefcases.  books and were attending a PS course of some type. Among the
which he believed to be an StB school. This installation was located in the Dejvice section of Prague, near the US Embassy (see page 4). He had seen a large number of male and female enlisted personnel there.  quite frequently passed the former Chamber of Commerce building located in the Stare Mesto area of Prague. Although there was nothing to indicate what was housed in the building, there was an StB guard at the entrance and he saw young StB personnel wearing plain, dark red shoulderboards entering and leaving. He believed that StB personnel undergoing recruit training were quartered there.  known or suspected StB barracks. He was of the opinion that, generally, StB members lived in private quarters.  The only place where  personnel was in the vicinity or the Prague-Smichov railroad station (see page 3), which he passed about once every two weeks. In a building across from this station there was located what  was a PS school. There was no sign to indicate this fact except that PS members entering and leaving this building were carrying briefcases.  they carried books and were attending a PS course of some type. Among the passed an installation which he believed to be an StB school. This installation was located in the Dejvice section of Prague, near the US Embassy (see page 4). He had seen a large number of male and female enlisted personnel there.  quite frequently passed the former Chamber of Commerce building located in the Stare Mesto area of Prague. Although there was nothing to indicate what was housed in the building, there was an StB guard at the entrance and he saw young StB personnel wearing plain, dark red shoulderboards entering and leaving. He believed that StB personnel undergoing recruit training were quartered there.  known or suspected StB barracks. He was of the opinion that, generally, StB members lived in private quarters.  The only place where  personnel was in the vicinity or the Prague-Smichov railroad station (see page 3), which he passed about once every two weeks. In a building across from this station there was located what  was a PS school. There was no sign to indicate this fact except that PS members entering and leaving this building were carrying briefcases.  books and were attending a PS course of some type. Among the passed an installation which he believed to be an StB school. This installation was located in the Dejvice section of Prague, near the US Embassy (see page 4). He had seen a large number of male and female enlisted personnel there.  quite frequently passed the former Chamber of Commerce building located in the Stare Mesto area of Prague. Although there was nothing to indicate what was housed in the building, there was an StB guard at the entrance and he saw young StB personnel wearing plain, dark red shoulderboards entering and leaving. He believed that StB personnel undergoing recruit training were quartered there.  In o other known or suspected StB barracks. He was of the opinion that, generally, StB members lived in private quarters.  The only place where  personnel was in the vicinity or the Prague-Smichov railroad station (see page 3), which he passed about once every two weeks. In a building across from this station there was located what  was a PS school. There was no sign to indicate this fact except that PS members entering and leaving this building were carrying briefcases.  books and were attending a PS course of some type. Among the passed an installation which he believed to be an StB school. This installation was located in the Dejvice section of Prague, near the US Embassy (see page 4). He had seen a large number of male and female enlisted personnel there.  quite frequently passed the former Chamber of Commerce building located in the Stare Mesto area of Prague. Although there was nothing to indicate what was housed in the building, there was an StB guard at the entrance and he saw young StB personnel wearing plain, dark red shoulderboards entering and leaving. He believed that StB personnel undergoing recruit training were quartered there.  known or suspected StB barracks. He was of the opinion that, generally, StB members lived in private quarters.  The only place where  personnel was in the vicinity or the Prague-Smichov railroad station (see page 3), which he passed about once every two weeks. In a building across from this station there was located what  was a PS school. There was no sign to indicate this fact except that PS members entering and leaving this building were carrying briefcases.  books and were attending a PS course of some type. Among the
which he believed to be an StB school. This installation was located in the Dejvice section of Prague, near the US Embassy (see page 4). He had seen a large number of male and female enlisted personnel there.  enlisted personnel there.  quite frequently passed the former Chamber of Commerce building located in the Stare Mesto area of Prague. Although there was nothing to indicate what was housed in the building, there was an StB guard at the entrance and he saw young StB personnel wearing plain, dark red shoulderboards entering and leaving. He believed that StB personnel undergoing recruit training were quartered there.  known or suspected StB barracks. He was of the opinion that, generally, StB members lived in private quarters.  The only place where personnel was in the vicinity of the Prague-Smichov railroad station (see page 3), which he passed about once every two weeks. In a building across from this station there was located what was a PS school. There was no sign to indicate this fact except that PS members entering and leaving this building were carrying briefcases.  books and were attending a PS course of some type. Among the located in the Dejvice section of Prague, near the US Embassy (see page 4). He had seen a large number of male and female enlisted personnel there.  quite frequently passed the former Chamber of Commerce building located in the Stare Mesto area of Prague. Although there was nothing to indicate what was housed in the building, there was an StB guard at the entrance and he saw young StB personnel wearing plain, dark red shoulderboards entering and leaving. He believed that StB personnel undergoing recruit training were quartered there.  In o other known or suspected StB barracks. He was of the opinion that, generally, StB members lived in private quarters.  The only place where seen PS (Border Guard) personnel was in the vicinity or the Prague-Smichov railroad station (see page 3), which he passed about once every two weeks. In a building across from this station there was located what was a PS school. There was no sign to indicate this fact except that PS members entering and leaving this building were carrying briefcases.  books and were attending a PS course of some type. Among the	.
(see page 4). He had seen a large number of male and female enlisted personnel there.  quite frequently passed the former Chamber of Commerce building located in the Stare Mesto area of Prague. Although there was nothing to indicate what was housed in the building, there was an StB guard at the entrance and he saw young StB personnel wearing plain, dark red shoulderboards entering and leaving. He believed that StB personnel undergoing recruit training were quartered there.  In a cother known or suspected StB barracks. He was of the opinion that, generally, StB members lived in private quarters.  The only place where personnel was in the vicinity or the Prague-Smichov railroad station (see page 3), which he passed about once every two weeks. In a building across from this station there was located what was a PS school. There was no sign to indicate this fact except that PS members entering and leaving this building were carrying briefcases.  books and were attending a PS course of some type. Among the	Every tw
the former Chamber of Commerce building located in the Stare Mesto area of Prague. Although there was nothing to indicate what was housed in the building, there was an StB guard at the entrance and he saw young StB personnel wearing plain, dark red shoulderboards entering and leaving. He believed that StB personnel undergoing recruit training were quartered there.  In a contact the passed about once every two weeks. The only place where personnel was in the vicinity or the Prague-Smichov railroad station (see page 3), which he passed about once every two weeks. In a building across from this station there was located what was a PS school. There was no sign to indicate this fact except that PS members entering and leaving this building were carrying briefcases.  books and were attending a PS course of some type. Among the	Every tw	belie	red to		ool. This i	nstallation wa	ıs area of Prague. Although there was nothing to indicate what was housed in the building, there was an StB guard at the entrance and he saw young StB personnel wearing plain, dark red shoulderboards entering and leaving. He believed that StB personnel undergoing recruit training were quartered there	Every tw which he located (see pag	belie in the e 4).	ved to Dejvic He had	e section of seen a large	ool. This i Prague, near number of m	nstallation wa the US Embass ale and female	15 5 y
he saw young StB personnel wearing plain, dark red shoulderboards entering and leaving. He believed that StB personnel undergoing recruit training were quartered there. In o other known or suspected StB barracks. He was of the opinion that, generally, StB members lived in private quarters.  The only place where seen PS (Border Guard) personnel was in the vicinity or the Prague-Smichov railroad station (see page 3), which he passed about once every two weeks. In a building across from this station there was located what was a PS school. There was no sign to indicate this fact except that PS members entering and leaving this building were carrying briefcases. they carried books and were attending a PS course of some type. Among the	Every tw which he located (see pag enlisted	belied in the decay of the deca	ved to Dejvic He had nnel th	e section of seen a large ere.	ool. This i Prague, near number of m qui	nstallation wa the US Embass ale and female te frequently	as sy passed entering and leaving. He believed that StB personnel undergoing recruit training were quartered there.  known or suspected StB barracks. He was of the opinion that, generally, StB members lived in private quarters.  The only place where seen PS (Border Guard) personnel was in the vicinity of the Prague-Smichov railroad station (see page 3), which he passed about once every two weeks. In a building across from this station there was located what was a PS school. There was no sign to indicate this fact except that PS members entering and leaving this building were carrying briefcases.  books and were attending a PS course of some type. Among the	Every tw which he located (see pag enlisted the form area of	belied in the e 4). person er Char Prague	ved to Dejvic He had nnel th mber of Alth	e section of seen a large ere. Commerce building there was	ool. This i Prague, near number of m qui lding locate s nothing to	nstallation wa the US Embass ale and female te frequently d in the Stare indicate what	as 3y passed Mesto 5 was recruit training were quartered there. no other known or suspected StB barracks. He was of the opinion that, generally, StB members lived in private quarters.  The only place where seen PS (Border Guard) personnel was in the vicinity or the Frague-Smichov railroad station (see page 3), which he passed about once every two weeks. In a building across from this station there was located what was a PS school. There was no sign to indicate this fact except that PS members entering and leaving this building were carrying briefcases. they carried books and were attending a PS course of some type. Among the	Every tw which he located (see pag enlisted the form area of housed i	belie in the e 4). person er Char Prague n the	ved to Dejvic He had nnel th mber of Alth ouildin	e section of seen a large ere. Commerce bui ough there was, there was	ool. This i Prague, near number of m qui lding locate s nothing to an StB guard	nstallation wanth the US Embass ale and female te frequently d in the Stare indicate what at the entran	ss by passed Mesto was nce and The only place where seen PS (Border Guard) personnel was in the vicinity or the Prague-Smichov railroad station (see page 3), which he passed about once every two weeks. In a building across from this station there was located what was a PS school. There was no sign to indicate this fact except that PS members entering and leaving this building were carrying briefcases.  books and were attending a PS course of some type. Among the	Every tw which he located (see pag enlisted the form area of housed i he saw y	belie in the ie 4). person er Char Prague n the loung S	ved to Dejvic He had nnel th mber of Alth ouildin	e section of seen a large ere. Commerce bui ough there was onnel wearing	col. This i Prague, near number of m qui Iding locate s nothing to an StB guard plain. dark	nstallation was the US Embass ale and female te frequently d in the Stare indicate what at the entran	as by passed Mesto was nce and
The only place where personnel was in the vicinity of the Prague-Smichov railroad station (see page 3), which he passed about once every two weeks. In a building across from this station there was located what was a PS school. There was no sign to indicate this fact except that PS members entering and leaving this building were carrying briefcases. they carried books and were attending a PS course of some type. Among the	Every tw which he located (see pagenlisted the form area of housed i he saw yentering recruit	belie in the e 4). person er Char Prague n the loung S and lot training	ved to Dejvic He had nnel th mber of Alth buildin tB pers eaving. ng were	e section of seen a large ere. Commerce bui ough there was onnel wearing He believed quartered th	ool. This i Prague, near number of m qui Iding locate s nothing to an StB guard plain, dark that StB pe	nstallation was the US Embass ale and female te frequently d in the Stare indicate what at the entran red shoulders rsonnel underg	passed passed Mesto was nce and poards going personnel was in the vicinity of the Prague-Smichov railroad station (see page 3), which he passed about once every two weeks. In a building across from this station there was located what was a PS school. There was no sign to indicate this fact except that PS members entering and leaving this building were carrying briefcases.  they carried books and were attending a PS course of some type. Among the	Every tw which he located (see pagenlisted the form area of housed i he saw yentering recruit known or	belie in the e 4). person er Char Prague n the loung S and lot training suspension and suspension to the end of the end o	ved to Dejvic He had nnel th nber of Alth buildin tB pers eaving. ng were	e section of seen a large ere. Commerce bui ough there was onnel wearing He believed quartered th barracks.	ool. This i Prague, near number of m qui Iding locate s nothing to an StB guard plain, dark that StB pe ere. He was of th	nstallation was the US Embass ale and female te frequently d in the Stare indicate what at the entran red shoulders rsonnel underg	passed passed Mesto was nce and poards going station (see page 3), which he passed about once every two weeks.  In a building across from this station there was located what  was a PS school. There was no sign to indicate this fact except that PS members entering and leaving this build- ing were carrying briefcases.  they carried books and were attending a PS course of some type. Among the	Every tw which he located (see pagenlisted the form area of housed in he saw yentering recruit known or generall	belie in the e 4). person er Charler charler coung S and I training suspeny, StB	ved to Dejvic He had nnel th nber of Alth buildin tB pers ng were ted St member	e section of seen a large ere. Commerce bui ough there was onnel wearing He believed quartered th barracks.	col. This i Prague, near number of m qui Iding locate s nothing to an StB guard plain, dark that StB pe ere. He was of th ivate quarte	nstallation was the US Embass ale and female te frequently d in the Stare indicate what at the entranders mounders no other opinion that rs.	passed passed Mesto was nce and poards going In a building across from this station there was located what  was a PS school. There was no sign to indicate this fact except that PS members entering and leaving this build- ing were carrying briefcases.  they carried books and were attending a PS course of some type. Among the	Every tw which he located (see pagenlisted the form area of housed in he saw yentering recruit known or generall	belie in the e 4). person er Char Prague n the loung Stand lot training suspeny, StB	ved to Dejvic He had nnel th mber of Alth ouildin tB pers ng were cted St member where	e section of seen a large ere. Commerce bui ough there was onnel wearing He believed quartered the barracks.	col. This i Prague, near number of m qui Iding locate s nothing to an StB guard plain, dark that StB pe ere. He was of th ivate quarte	nstallation was the US Embass ale and female te frequently d in the Stare indicate what at the entranger of the connel under monnel under the opinion that the connel under the connection that the connec	passed passed Mesto was nce and poards going ther this fact except that PS members entering and leaving this build- ing were carrying briefcases. they carried books and were attending a PS course of some type. Among the	Every tweether the which he located (see pagenlisted the form area of housed in the saw yentering recruit known or generall the only personne	belie in the e 4). person er Chai Prague n the loung S and lot training y, StB place 1 was	ved to Dejvic He had nnel th mber of Alth ouildin tB pers ag were ted St where in the	e section of seen a large ere. Commerce bui ough there was onnel wearing He believed quartered the barracks. It is lived in pr	col. This i Prague, near number of m qui Iding locate s nothing to an StB guard plain, dark that StB pe ere. He was of th ivate quarte seen PS ( he Prague-Sm	nstallation was the US Embass ale and female te frequently d in the Stare indicate what at the entranger of the connel understand in the connel understand in the copinion that rs.  Border Guard) ichov railroad	passed Mesto was nee and coards coing ther ing were carrying briefcases. they carried books and were attending a PS course of some type. Among the	Every tweethich he located (see pagen11sted the form area of housed 1 he saw yentering recruit known or generall The only personne station	belie in the e 4). person er Char Prague n the oung S and li training suspen y, StB place l was (see p	ved to Dejvic He had nnel th nber of Alth ouildin tB pers ex vere cted St member where in the age 3), across	e section of seen a large ere. Commerce bui ough there was onnel wearing He believed quartered the barracks. I lived in previous from this sta	col. This i Prague, near number of m qui Iding locate s nothing to an StB guard plain, dark that StB pe ere. He was of th ivate quarte seen PS ( he Prague-Sm sed about on tion there w	nstallation was the US Embass ale and female te frequently d in the Stare indicate what at the entranted shoulders monnel unders no ot e opinion that rs.  Border Guard) ichov railroad ce every two was located what	passed passed Mesto was nee and poards coing ther books and were attending a PS course of some type. Among the	Every twentich he located (see pagen11sted the form area of housed 1 he saw yentering recruit known or generall The only personne station In a bui	belie in the e 4). person er Charler C	ved to Dejvic He had nnel th nber of Alth ouildin tB pers eaving. or were cted St member where in the age 3), across was a	e section of seen a large ere. Commerce bui ough there was onnel wearing He believed quartered the barracks. It is lived in previous that the passion of the	col. This i Prague, near number of m qui Iding locate s nothing to an StB guard plain, dark that StB pe ere. He was of th ivate quarte seen PS ( he Prague-Sm sed about on tion there was no	nstallation was the US Embass ale and female te frequently d in the Stare indicate what at the entran red shoulders rsonnel unders e opinion that rs.  Border Guard) ichov railroad ce every two was as located what sign to indice	passed passed Mesto was nee and poards coing ther
	Every twentich he located (see pagen11sted the form area of housed 1 he saw yentering recruit known or generall The only personne station In a builthis fac	belie in the e 4). person er Char Prague n the oung S and later in suspen y, StB place l was (see place t except	ved to Dejvic He had nnel th nber of . Alth ouildin tB pers eaving. cted St member where in the age 3), across was a pt that	e section of seen a large ere. Commerce bui ough there was onnel wearing He believed quartered the barracks. It is lived in previous the passion of the pass	col. This i Prague, near number of m qui Iding locate s nothing to an StB guard plain, dark that StB pe ere. He was of th ivate quarte seen PS ( he Prague-Sm sed about on tion there was no	nstallation was the US Embass ale and female te frequently d in the Stare indicate what at the entran red shoulders rsonnel underg no ot e opinion that rs.  Border Guard) ichov railroad ce every two was as located what sign to indicate leaving this be	passed passed Mesto was nce and poards coing ther weeks.

Declassified in Part - Sanitized Copy Approved for Release @ 50-Yr 2013/09/26 : CIA-RDP82-00046R000400440004-5

CONFIDENTIAL - 2 -

Legend: (See sketch, page 3)

- 1. StB office buildings. For details, see sketch page 4.
- 2. StB school buildings. For details, see sketch page 4.
- 3. The American Embassy. (This location was given only as a guide point.)
- 4. The Office of the Presidium of the Government: two-story brick building, 150 x 7 m. The entrances of this building were guarded by ZS guards while the area around the building was guarded by VS guards.
- 5. StB barracks: four-story dark gray corner building, 20 x 30 m. A former Chamber of Commerce building.
- 6. Smichov Railroad Station.
- 7. PS School: three-story gray corner building, 20 x 20 m.

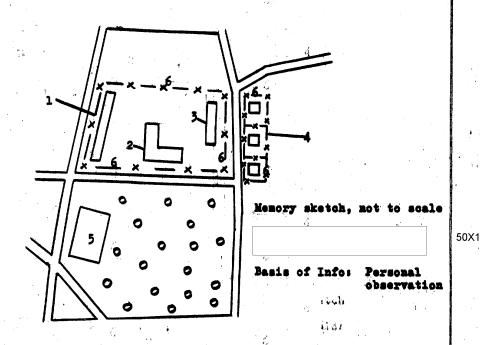

50X1

CONFIDENTIAL

_ 4 _

Possible SEB School Located in PRAGUE/Delvice

Note: For pimpoint location of this area see Page 3 (items 1,2 and 3)

List

1412

LEGEND:

- Garage: 1-story brick bldg, 60 x 5 m. For sedans. Further details unknown.
- StB Office Bldg: 3-story brick bldg, 30 x 12 m. Ferner St. Vaclav Catholic Seminary.
- 3. StB Office Bldg: 3-story brick bldg, 50 x 10 m.
- 4. StB School Classrooms: About three 1-story family-type brick houses, 10 x 10 m. Source believed that the rooms in these houses were being used as classrooms.
- 5. American Embassy Building.
- 6. Fence: Brick and iron, approx. 2 m. high.

Note: At each of the StB buildings a uniformed StB guard checked passes of everyone entering and leaving.